

SHIPPING / RETURNS

You do not need a FFL (Federal Firearms License) to purchase ammunition online. We can ship ammunition to your door via UPS. Ammunition shipping to Alaska or Hawaii must be shipped airfreight with hazardous material classification.

All ammunition is non-returnable and non-refundable for safety reasons.

Due to the complexity of state and local laws the customer must check to see if a product is legal to import into his state and locality. Some areas have restrictions on guns, ammunition, magazines, tear gas, lasers, and other items. Know your local law.
